MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

GLOBAL ECONOMIC SCENARIO :

The global economy continued to witness a period of transition during the financial year under review, shaped by geopolitical uncertainties, elevated interest rates, inflationary pressures, supply chain realignments and evolving trade patterns. Although inflation moderated in several economies compared to the previous year, the global macroeconomic environment remained cautious due to continuing geopolitical tensions, energy market volatility and uneven growth trends across developed and emerging markets.

Major economies continued to balance growth priorities with inflation management. Central banks across several jurisdictions maintained a careful approach towards interest rates, which impacted borrowing costs, capital flows and investment decisions. At the same time, digital transformation, artificial intelligence, automation, healthcare, education technology and workforce reskilling emerged as important growth themes globally.

The global education and training industry continued to undergo structural transformation. The demand for lifelong learning, employability-linked education, vocational skills, digital learning platforms and technology-enabled education services continued to increase. Educational institutions across the world are increasingly adopting hybrid learning systems, cloud-based academic platforms, data analytics, AI-enabled learning models and digital administrative solutions to enhance efficiency and learning outcomes.

Artificial Intelligence ("AI"), automation, analytics and immersive technologies are gradually reshaping the way education is delivered and managed. Institutions are focusing on personalized learning, outcome-based education, digital assessments, operational automation and student engagement. This trend is expected to create long-term opportunities for education support service providers.

In this evolving environment, Global Education Limited ("GEL" or "the Company") continues to focus on client-centric service delivery, institutional partnerships, digital capabilities, operational agility and scalable solutions. The Company remains committed to strengthening its service portfolio and supporting educational institutions in adapting to digital transformation, changing learner expectations and evolving regulatory requirements.

INDIAN ECONOMIC SCENARIO :

India continued to remain one of the fastest growing major economies globally, supported by resilient domestic demand, infrastructure development, digital transformation, policy reforms and favorable demographic trends. The Indian economy has demonstrated strong resilience in the face of global uncertainties and continues to benefit from robust consumption, formalization, increased capital expenditure, innovation and technology-led growth.

The Government of India's long-term vision of "Viksit Bharat 2047" focuses on transforming India into a developed economy by strengthening infrastructure, manufacturing, digital public infrastructure, innovation, entrepreneurship, education, skilling and employment generation. The Union Budget 2025-26 has further reinforced this approach by emphasizing inclusive growth, human capital development, deep-tech, digital infrastructure and employment-oriented initiatives. The Budget highlights include measures such as a Centre of Excellence in AI for Education with an outlay of ₹500 crore, National Centres of Excellence for Skilling, broadband connectivity to schools and primary health centres, expansion of IIT capacity and the National Manufacturing Mission.

India's demographic profile continues to provide a strong foundation for growth in education, training, skilling and employability-linked services. A large young population, increasing aspirations, rising digital adoption and growing demand for quality education are expected to support long-term growth of the education and training ecosystem.

The rapid expansion of digital infrastructure, affordable internet access, smartphone penetration and technology-enabled platforms has accelerated adoption of online and hybrid education models. The Indian education ecosystem is increasingly moving towards integrated, outcome-based and employability-oriented models. This shift provides significant opportunities for companies engaged in educational training, business support services, digital learning solutions, institutional consulting and skill development.

For GEL, these macroeconomic and policy trends create a favorable operating environment. The Company's focus on education support services, technology-enabled delivery, skill development, business support activities and institutional partnerships aligns with India's broader movement towards knowledge-based growth and employability-led development.

EDUCATION & TRAINING INDUSTRY IN INDIA :

The education and training industry in India continues to be one of the most important pillars of national development. The sector contributes significantly to human capital formation, employment generation, skill enhancement and socio-economic progress. India's large student population, expanding higher education ecosystem, rising demand for professional education and increasing need for employability-oriented learning continue to drive growth in this sector.

The industry is witnessing a fundamental transformation from traditional classroom-led models to blended, digital and outcome-focused learning systems. Educational institutions are increasingly adopting Learning Management Systems, ERP platforms, digital assessments, cloud-based content delivery, virtual classrooms, analytics tools and automation solutions. This shift is not limited to formal education but also extends to corporate training, vocational education, competitive examination preparation, professional certification and lifelong learning.

The National Education Policy, 2020 continues to act as a reform-oriented framework for the sector. It emphasizes multidisciplinary education, vocational integration, digital learning, flexibility in curriculum, research orientation, skill development and improved learning outcomes. The implementation of NEP 2020 is expected to gradually transform the structure and quality of education delivery in India. The Government's continued focus on digital education, Artificial Intelligence, skill development and employability has further strengthened the growth prospects of the sector. The Union Budget 2025-26 emphasized AI-led education initiatives and establishment of Centres of Excellence for Artificial Intelligence in Education to strengthen innovation, digital learning and employability.

The Indian education sector is also witnessing increasing participation from private players, EdTech companies, training institutions and institutional service providers. Demand for technology-enabled services, academic administration support, content development, digital transformation and employability training is expected to grow as institutions seek scalable and efficient operating models.

GEL remains focused on supporting educational institutions through its diversified service offerings, including educational training and development activities, business support activities, skill development, publication/content development and technology-enabled support services.

MARKET SIZE AND INDUSTRY STRUCTURE

The Indian education market continues to present substantial long-term opportunities across school education, higher education, vocational training, professional education, competitive examination preparation, EdTech, digital learning, corporate training and skill development.

India has one of the largest education systems in the world, supported by a vast institutional network, large student base and increasing demand for quality education. The higher education ecosystem continues to expand with universities, colleges, technical institutions, training centres and online education platforms playing an increasingly important role in meeting learner aspirations.

The EdTech and digital learning segments continue to evolve after the rapid adoption witnessed during and after the pandemic. While the sector has moved from hyper-growth to a more disciplined and outcome-driven phase, the long-term fundamentals remain strong. Institutions and learners are increasingly seeking flexible, affordable, accessible and measurable learning solutions.

The growing focus on employability, industry-linked curriculum, vocational training, reskilling and upskilling is creating demand for education support services. Companies operating in this space are expected to benefit from increased digital adoption, government-led skilling initiatives, public-private partnerships and technology-enabled learning ecosystems.

The increasing role of Artificial Intelligence, analytics, automation, cloud platforms and digital public infrastructure is expected to reshape the market further. Education providers are moving towards integrated solutions that combine academic delivery, administrative efficiency, data management, student engagement and outcome tracking.

The Company believes that these market trends provide sustainable opportunities for growth, subject to effective execution, regulatory compliance, technology adoption and customer-centric service delivery.

In line with these evolving industry trends and policy developments, GEL continues to strengthen its capabilities in digital learning, technology-enabled education support services, institutional partnerships and skill development initiatives to support the next phase of growth in India's education ecosystem.

For GEL, these initiatives provide an opportunity to strengthen offerings in educational training, business support, digital transformation, skill development and institutional services.

E-LEARNING, AI AND DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION :

The education sector is witnessing accelerated adoption of e-learning, hybrid learning, digital classrooms, cloud platforms, Learning Management Systems, AI-enabled tools and automation solutions. The traditional education model is gradually being supplemented by digital delivery, flexible learning formats and personalized academic engagement.

AI has the potential to significantly transform the education ecosystem. AI-enabled systems can support personalized learning paths, adaptive assessments, automated doubt resolution, predictive analytics, academic performance tracking and efficient administrative processes. Educational institutions are increasingly exploring AI-based tools to improve learning quality, student engagement and operational efficiency.

Digital transformation is also improving institutional administration. ERP platforms, admission management systems, fee management systems, examination tools, student lifecycle platforms, parent communication systems and analytics dashboards are becoming integral to modern educational management.

Cloud computing and digital content platforms are enabling institutions to reach learners beyond physical classrooms. Hybrid learning models allow students to access content at their convenience while retaining classroom interaction where required. This creates opportunities for institutions to improve scalability, accessibility and student outcomes.

The increasing use of AR, VR, simulations and interactive tools is expected to enhance experiential learning, especially in professional, technical and vocational education. As the education sector moves towards outcome-based learning, technology will continue to play an important role in assessment, monitoring and continuous improvement.

GEL continues to align its business strategy with these developments by focusing on technology-enabled services, digital learning support, skill development, process automation and scalable delivery models.

CORPORATE TRAINING, SKILLING AND EMPLOYABILITY

The demand for corporate training, vocational education, reskilling and upskilling continues to grow in India. Rapid technological change, automation, digitization and evolving industry requirements have created a need for continuous learning across sectors.

Employers increasingly seek candidates who are not only academically qualified but also industry-ready. Skills such as digital literacy, communication, problem-solving, critical thinking, data handling, adaptability and domain-specific technical knowledge are becoming essential for employability.

Government initiatives such as the PM Internship Scheme, National Centres of Excellence for Skilling and skill development programs are expected to support workforce readiness and industry-linked training. The Government's focus on manufacturing, technology and services will likely increase demand for employability-focused education and training.

Corporate training is also becoming more diversified. Training delivery is increasingly moving towards blended and digital models, enabling flexibility and wider reach.

GEL's focus on skill development, training, educational services and institutional partnerships positions it to benefit from these long-term trends.

OPPORTUNITIES IN EDUCATION AND TRAINING INDUSTRY

The education and training industry in India presents significant opportunities across multiple segments. The major opportunities include:

- Digital Learning Expansion : The increasing acceptance of digital and hybrid learning models is creating demand for online platforms, digital content, virtual classrooms, learning management systems and student engagement tools. Institutions are increasingly adopting technology to improve access, quality and scalability.

The Company's publication and content development initiatives can support deeper engagement with students and institutions.

THREATS, RISKS AND CHALLENGES :

While the education and training industry in India presents significant long-term growth opportunities, the sector also faces various operational, regulatory, technological and economic challenges that may impact growth, profitability and sustainability. The education ecosystem continues to evolve rapidly due to policy reforms, technological advancements, changing learner expectations and increasing competitive intensity. Companies operating in this sector are therefore required to remain agile, innovative and adaptable to dynamic market conditions.

Regulatory and Policy Risks

The education sector in India is highly regulated and subject to continuous policy developments, statutory requirements and regulatory oversight by various governmental and educational authorities. Changes in Government policies, education reforms, institutional regulations, accreditation requirements, digital education guidelines, taxation policies or compliance frameworks may impact business operations, curriculum structures, delivery models and institutional partnerships.

The implementation of the National Education Policy ("NEP") 2020 and evolving digital learning regulations may also require continuous adaptation in academic delivery, operational processes, technology infrastructure and compliance mechanisms. Any significant regulatory change could impact operational flexibility, cost structures and market dynamics within the education ecosystem.

- Technological Disruption and Obsolescence : Rapid advancements in technology continue to transform the education landscape. Emerging technologies such as Artificial Intelligence ("AI"), Machine Learning ("ML"), automation, cloud computing, analytics, immersive learning tools and digital platforms are continuously reshaping educational delivery systems and institutional operations.

The pace of technological change requires continuous investments in systems, infrastructure, content development, cybersecurity and talent capabilities. Failure to adapt to evolving technologies, changing learner behavior or digital transformation trends may affect competitiveness and operational relevance. Educational institutions and service providers must continuously innovate to remain aligned with evolving market expectations.

- Increasing Competition : The education and training industry continues to witness increasing competition from EdTech companies, online learning platforms, training institutions, content providers, digital solution companies, vocational training providers and institutional support service organizations. Entry barriers in certain segments of the online learning ecosystem remain relatively low, leading to growing market fragmentation and pricing pressure.

Competition is driven not only by pricing but also by technology adoption, quality of delivery, innovation, scalability, customer experience, digital reach, academic outcomes and institutional relationships. Companies operating in the sector must continuously differentiate themselves through service quality, execution capability, domain expertise, technology-enabled solutions and customer engagement.

- Cybersecurity and Data Privacy Risks :

The increasing reliance on digital platforms, cloud-based systems, ERP solutions, online assessments and technology-enabled learning ecosystems exposes educational institutions and service providers to cybersecurity risks and data privacy concerns.

Cyber threats, phishing attacks, ransomware incidents, unauthorized access, system disruptions, technology failures or data breaches could adversely impact operations, reputation, customer confidence and regulatory compliance. Protection of student data, institutional information and digital infrastructure has therefore become increasingly critical.

The Company continues to strengthen its cybersecurity framework, digital controls, monitoring systems and technology infrastructure to mitigate potential risks relating to data security and operational continuity.

- Economic Volatility and Financial Risks

Macroeconomic conditions, inflationary pressures, interest rate movements, geopolitical uncertainties and changes in consumer spending patterns may impact the education sector. Economic slowdowns may affect institutional budgets, discretionary education spending, fee affordability and expansion plans of educational institutions.

Rising employee costs, technology investments, digital infrastructure expenditure, content development costs, marketing expenses and competitive pricing pressures may also impact operating margins and profitability. Educational institutions may continue to face financial constraints, especially in a highly competitive and evolving environment.

The Company continues to focus on operational efficiency, prudent cost management and scalable business models to address such economic and financial risks.

- Infrastructure and Digital Access Challenges

Although digital adoption in India has increased significantly, disparities in internet connectivity, digital infrastructure and access to technology continue to exist across various regions, particularly in rural and semi-urban areas. Inadequate broadband infrastructure, limited access to devices and inconsistent digital accessibility may affect the pace of adoption of online and technology-enabled education systems.

Educational institutions also require continuous investments in digital infrastructure, cloud systems, hardware, software and academic technology solutions to support evolving delivery models and operational efficiency.

- Talent Acquisition and Retention Risks

Human capital remains one of the most critical success factors in the education and training industry. The sector requires skilled academic professionals, technology experts, trainers, operational personnel and management teams capable of adapting to evolving industry requirements and digital transformation initiatives.

Attrition in academic, technical or senior management teams may affect continuity, customer relationships, operational efficiency and business performance. Competition for experienced talent within the education and technology sectors also continues to increase.

The Company therefore continues to focus on employee engagement, capability development, training, performance management and creating a positive work environment to attract and retain talent.

- Changing Learner Preferences and Industry Expectations

The education ecosystem is witnessing continuous shifts in learner behavior, industry requirements and educational expectations. Learners increasingly seek flexible, affordable, personalized and outcome-oriented learning experiences aligned with employability and career growth.

Traditional learning models are gradually giving way to hybrid education, micro-learning, certification-based learning, self-paced education and skill-oriented training. Educational institutions and service providers must continuously adapt their offerings to remain relevant and aligned with changing market expectations.

- Dependence on Technology Platforms and Digital Ecosystems

As the sector increasingly adopts digital and hybrid delivery systems, operational dependence on technology platforms, digital infrastructure, cloud services and online ecosystems continues to grow. Any prolonged system downtime, technical disruptions, software failures or third-party technology issues may affect service delivery and operational continuity.

Continuous investments in technology modernization, platform stability and digital infrastructure therefore remain essential for long-term operational resilience.

- Geographical Concentration and Market Risks

Revenue concentration in specific regions or customer segments may expose the Company to regional economic conditions, localized competition, policy changes or operational disruptions. The Company therefore continues to evaluate opportunities for geographical diversification, broader market presence and expansion of service offerings across multiple education verticals.

- Public Health, Geopolitical and External Risks

External factors such as public health crises, geopolitical conflicts, global economic slowdowns, natural disasters or socio-political uncertainties may impact educational continuity, institutional operations, student mobility and business sentiment. The education sector has become increasingly interconnected with global economic and technological developments, thereby exposing it to broader external risks.

- Risk Monitoring and Mitigation

The Company continuously monitors these risks through its internal control systems, risk management framework, governance mechanisms and management review processes. The Company's approach towards risk management includes periodic assessment of operational, financial, technological and regulatory risks along with implementation of mitigation measures, compliance systems and internal controls.

The Company remains committed towards strengthening operational resilience, governance standards, digital capabilities and risk mitigation practices to support long-term sustainable growth and stakeholder value creation.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF GLOBAL EDUCATION LTD.

CIN No: L80301MH2011PLC219291

Report on the Audit of Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of GLOBAL EDUCATION LTD ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31 March, 2026, the statement of Profit and Loss (including other comprehensive income), the statement of change in equity and the statement of cash flow for year ended on that date and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. (Hereafter referred as 'standalone Ind AS financial statements').

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2026, the Profit and the total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit of standalone financial statement in accordance with standard on Auditing ("SA") specified under section 143 (10) of the Act. Our responsibility under those standards is further described in the auditors' responsibilities for the audit of standalone financial statement section of our report. We are independent of the company in accordance with the code of Ethics issued by institute of chartered Accountants ("ICAI") together with the ethical requirement that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statement under provision of the act and the rules are made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's code of ethics. We believe that audit evidence obtained by us sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statement.

Key Audit Matters

The Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement were of most significant in our audit of standalone financial statement of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statement as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide separate opinion on these matters.

Information other than the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management discussion and analyses, Board's Report including annexure to Board's Report, Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's information, but does not include the Consolidated Financial Statement, Standalone financial statement, and our Auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the Standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report this fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibility of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, Management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matter relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Director either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease the operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our Objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement whether due to error or fraud, and to issue an Auditor's Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to the Standalone Financial Statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance note on Audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by ICAI and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control with reference to Standalone Financial Statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. - (1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- (3) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to Standalone Financial Statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanation given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to Standalone Financial Statement and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2026 based on criteria for the internal Financial control with reference to Standalone Financial Statements established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

These financial statements are approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 28th May 2026.

The financial statements are based on the classification provisions contained in Ind AS - 1, 'Presentation of Financial Statements' and division II of schedule III of the Companies Act, 2013. Further, for the purpose of clarity, various items are aggregated in the statement of profit and loss and balance sheet. Nonetheless, these items are dis-aggregated separately in the notes to the financial statements, where applicable or required based on materiality of item being classified.

b) Basis of Measurement :

The separate financial statements of the company are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS), under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"), unless otherwise stated.

c) Current and non-current classification

Assets and liabilities are classified into current and non-current as follows:

Assets -

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria :

- It is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the company's normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- It is expected to be realised within 12 months after the reporting period; or
- It is cash or cash equivalent unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

Current assets include the current portion of non-current financial assets. All other assets (including deferred tax assets) are classified as non-current.

Liabilities

A liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- It is expected to be settled in the company's normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- It is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting period; or
- The company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Current liabilities include the current portion of non-current financial liabilities. All other liabilities (including deferred tax liabilities) are classified as non-current.

Operating cycle –

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents. Based on the nature of operations and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Company has ascertained its operating cycle being a period of 12 months for the purpose of classification of assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

d) Foreign currency translations

- Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ('the functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (Rs.), which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

- Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at period end exchange rates are generally recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

e) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements is in conformity with Indian Accounting Standard ('Ind AS'), which requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities as on the date of financial statement and the result of operations during the reporting period. Although these estimates are made on reasonable and prudent basis based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.

f) InvestmentsClassification

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- Those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income, or profit and loss) or
- Those measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the Company's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows. For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held. For investments in equity instruments, this will depend on whether the Company has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through profit and loss. The Company reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes classification.

*The unquoted equity instruments on the basis of prudence and reasonable estimate by the management are carried over at Purchase cost which involves the irrevocable election by the management to carry the same at cost and based on the market data and significant changes in the values are incorporate by revaluing the same at fair value through profit and loss.

For the detail policy regarding the same the company would draw your attention to note no. n on Financial Instruments.

g) Property, plant and equipmenti. Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at actual cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Cost comprises the purchase price and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price.

The Company has elected to continue with the carrying value for all of its property, plant and equipment as recognised in the financial statements on transition to Ind AS, measured as per the previous GAAP and use that as its deemed cost as at the date of transition.

ii. Capital work in progress

Asset that is still not completed and is in process of development is shown as capital work in progress. Capital work in progress is recognised on the basis of stage of its completion which adheres to the criteria of recognition that a future benefit can be obtained at the current stage of completion. Cost incurred till date is capitalized and once the asset is ready to use it is shifted to the block of fixed assets with unique identity and depreciation is charged accordingly thereafter.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to acquisition of property, plant & equipment which take substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are also included to the extent they relate to the period till such assets are ready to be put to use.

iii. Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation is provided on the written down value basis at the rates determined based on useful lives of assets, where applicable, prescribed under Schedule II to The Companies Act, 2013. Depreciation on assets acquired / sold during the year is provided on pro-rata basis with reference to the date of installation / put to use/ disposal.

The carrying cost of assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date to determine if there is any indication of impairment thereof based on external/internal factors. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds their recoverable amounts in accordance with IND AS-36 – "Impairment of Assets" which represent the greater of the net selling price of assets & their 'value in use'.

Asset Description	Useful life as per schedule II of the companies Act, 2013	Useful life
Building	60 Years	60 Years
Plant and Machinery	8 - 40 years	8 - 20 years
Office equipment's	5- 10 years	5 years
Computers	3 years	3 years
Servers and network	6 years	6 years
Vehicles	8-10 years	8 years
Furniture and fixture	10 years	10 years
Electrical Installation	10 years	10 years

Leasehold improvements are amortized over the period of lease.

Derecognition

An item of PPE is de-recognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss.

h) Intangible assets:

An intangible asset is recognized, where it is probable that future economic benefits attributable to the asset will flow to the enterprise and where the cost can be reliably ascertained. A prudent basis for recognition of intangible asset is always a key consideration. Intangible asset is stated at cost of acquisition less accumulated amortization and impairment loss, if any. Their technical feasibility and ability to generate future economic benefits is established in accordance with the requirements of IND AS-38, "Intangible Assets."

Derecognition

Intangible assets are derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount.

The Company has elected to continue with carrying value of all its intangible assets recognised as on transition date, measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as its deemed cost as of transition date.

i) Impairment of Non-financial assets:

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

j) Inventories:

Traded goods are stated at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost of traded goods comprises cost of purchases and all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on the basis of weighted average method. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

k) Revenue recognition:i. Sale of goods:

Revenue is recognised when significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer. Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that economic benefits will flow to the Company and revenue can be reliably ascertained. Discounts and concessions are accounted for separately in a similar manner. Revenue from Product sale is recognized upon delivery or when delivered to the carrier and stated net of returns, discounts/price incentives which are estimated and accounted for based on the terms of contract & excludes applicable indirect taxes. Amount received in advance of sale are recorded as Advances from Students/Unearned Revenue.

ii. Service income includes income from:Supply of infrastructure & other services:

Revenue from Supply of Infrastructure & Other services to corporate and other organizations is recognized on accrual basis.

Training programs:

Revenue from providing Training to Educational as well as Non-Educational Institutions is recognized on accrual basis. In case of online training the revenue is recognized on the basis of prudence and estimates made by the concerned department to the maximum possible level of accuracy, however sometimes the actual conformity is obtained after the counterparty confirmation.

Advertising, broadcasting & marketing Services :

Revenue from Advertising & Marketing Services provided to various organizations is recognized on accrual basis.

Management Services:

Revenue from Management Services provided to various organizations is recognized on accrual basis.

Income from other operations :

Revenue from other operations is recognized on accrual basis.

Revenue recognition is based on the terms and conditions as per the contracts entered into with the customers. In respect of expired contracts under renewal or where there are no contracts available, revenue is recognized based on the erstwhile contract / provisionally agreed terms and/or understanding with the customers.

iii. Other income :

Interest income is recognized on time proportion basis at applicable interest rates.

Dividend income is accounted for when the right to receive dividend is established.

Rental income is recognized on the time proportion basis over the term of relevant agreement.

l) Employee benefitsi. Short term employee benefits :

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognized as an expense during the period when the employees render services. Bonus expenditure is charged to statement of profit and loss on accrual basis.

II. Post-employment benefits:i. Defined Contribution Plans:

A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which the company makes specified monthly contributions towards Provident Fund. The company's contribution is recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss during the period in which the employees render the related service.

ii. Defined Benefit Plans :

Gratuity liability under the Payment of Gratuity Act is a defined benefit obligation and is provided for on the basis of an actuarial valuation on projected unit credit method made at the end of each financial year.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation denominated in Rs. 43.41 Lacs is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefit expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Re-measurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. They are included in retained earnings in the Statement of Changes in Equity and in the balance sheet.

Changes in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from plan amendments or curtailments are recognised immediately in profit or loss as past service cost.

m) Borrowing Costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalized during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

n) Financial InstrumentsFinancial assets

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following categories:

i. Financial assets at amortised cost-

Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. These are presented as current assets, except for those maturing later than 12 months after the reporting date which are presented as non-current assets. Financial assets are measured initially at fair value plus transaction costs and subsequently, if maturing after 12 months period, using the effective interest method, less any impairment loss. Debt instruments which do not meet the criteria of amortised cost are measured at fair value and classified as fair value through profit and loss or through other comprehensive income, as applicable. Financial assets at amortised cost are represented by trade receivables, security deposits, cash and cash equivalents, Loans and other advances.

ii. Financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI)-

All equity investments are measured at fair values. Investments which are not held for trading purposes and where the Company has exercised the option to classify the investment as Fair Value through other comprehensive income ('FVTOCI'), all fair value changes on the investment are recognised in OCI. The accumulated gains or losses recognised in OCI are reclassified to retained earnings on sale of such investments.

iii. Financial assets at Fair Value through Profit and Loss (FVTPL) –

All equity investments are measured at fair values. Investments which are held for trading purposes and where the Company has exercised the option to classify the investment as Fair Value through Profit and Loss ('FVTPL'), all fair value changes on the investment are recognised in profit and loss. The accumulated gains or losses recognised in Profit and Loss.

Financial assets which are not classified in any of the categories above are fair valued through profit or loss (FVTPL).

iv. Impairment of financial assets –

The Company assesses expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortised cost and fair value based on Company's past history of recovery, credit-worthiness of the counter party and existing market conditions. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. For trade receivables, the Company applies the simplified approach for recognition of impairment allowance as provided in Ind AS 109, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

Financial liabilitiesInitial recognition and measurement

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and in case of loans and borrowings net of directly attributable costs. Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using effective interest method. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying value approximates fair value due to short maturity of these instruments.

Investment in Subsidiaries, Associates, and Joint Ventures

Investment in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures are accounted at cost in the financial statements.

Offsetting of Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Fair value measurement

The Company classifies the fair value of its financial instruments in the following hierarchy, based on the inputs used in their valuation:

- i) Level 1 - The fair value of financial instruments quoted in active markets is based on their quoted closing price at the balance sheet date.
- ii) Level 2 - The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined by using valuation techniques using observable market data. Such valuation techniques include discounted cash flows, standard valuation models based on market parameters for interest rates, yield curves or foreign exchange rates, dealer quotes for similar instruments and use of comparable arm's length transactions.
- iii) Level 3 - The fair value of financial instruments that are measured on the basis of entity specific valuations using inputs that are not based on observable market data.

o) Leases

Upon adoption of Ind AS - 116, the Company applied a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases that it is the lessee, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Company recognized lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

As a lessee Ind AS - 116 will replace the existing leases Standard, Ind AS - 17 Leases, and related interpretations. The Standard sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases for both parties to a contract i.e., the lessee and the lessor. Ind AS - 116 introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than 12 months, unless the underlying asset is of low value. Currently, operating lease expenses are charged to the statement of profit & loss. In general, the company operates on short term leases only along with a specific clause to prematurely close the lease agreement as per the company's requirement thereby classifying all the lease as short term lease and individually each lease is having an underlying asset of low value. Additionally, if any agreement persists in contrary to short term lease they are dealt as per Ind AS 116.

The company considers that all its operating leases are of low value compared to its revenue and thereby accord to recognize all the lease expenses to the statement of profit and loss and the company has entered into lease contract which are not long term in nature with a specific clause of premature termination.

At inception of a contract, the Company assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether:

- the contract conveys the right to use an identified asset;
- the Company has the right to obtain substantially all the economic benefits from use of the asset throughout the period of use; and
- the Company has the right to direct the use of the identified asset.

At the date of commencement of a long term substantial lease, the Company recognises a right-of-use asset ("ROU assets") and a corresponding lease liability for all leases, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) or low value leases or where the company intends to operate a short term office. For short-term and low value leases, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Company has considered all leases where the value of an underlying asset does not individually exceed Rs. 0.50 Crores, or equivalent as a lease of low value assets.

Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. Lease payments to be made under such reasonably certain extension options are included in the measurement of ROU assets and lease liabilities.

Lease liability is measured by discounting the lease payments using the interest rate implication the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of the leases. Lease liabilities are re measured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right of use asset if the Company changes its assessment of whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option. Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to statement of profit and loss over the lease periods as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

The ROU assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives and restoration costs. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. ROU assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the asset's useful life (refer 2. (f)) other lease whichever is shorter.

Impairment of ROU assets is in accordance with the Company's accounting policy for impairment of tangible and intangible assets.

The Company has entered into lease arrangements primarily for office premises and other facilities. All such lease agreements are either short-term in nature (i.e., lease term of 12 months or less) or include clauses that allow the Company to terminate the leases at its discretion without incurring significant penalties. Accordingly, these contracts do not result in the recognition of a right-of-use (ROU) asset or lease liability as per the recognition criteria under Ind AS 116 Leases.

Consequently, lease payments made under these arrangements are accounted for as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term and disclosed under "Other Expenses" in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Since no enforceable non-cancellable period exists, all such leases are classified as current in nature.

As a lessor

Lease income from operating leases where the Company is a lessor is recognised in the statement of profit and loss on a straight – line basis over the lease term.

p) Taxes on income

i. Current tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate in India adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses. The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted in India at the end of the reporting period. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

The actual tax expense or tax payments made to the tax authorities can differ significantly on the basis of the interpretations being made. The management tries to interpret the law under the normal business parlance and the business acumen of the common man.

ii. Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the balance sheet approach on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised.

Deferred tax is recognized in Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that to relate to items recognized in Other Comprehensive Income or directly in equity. In this case, deferred tax is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, as the case maybe.

iii. Minimum Alternate Tax

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in a year is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss as current tax. The company recognizes MAT credit available as an asset only to the extent there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal income tax during the specified period, i.e., the period for which MAT Credit is allowed to be carried forward. In the year in which the Company recognizes MAT Credit as an asset in accordance with the Guidance Note on Accounting for Credit Available in respect of Minimum Alternate Tax under the Income Tax Act, 1961, the said asset is created by way of credit to the statement of Profit and Loss and shown as "MAT Credit Entitlement." The Company reviews the "MAT Credit Entitlement" asset at each reporting date and writes down the asset to the extent the company does not have convincing evidence that it will pay normal tax during the sufficient period.

q) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

These estimates are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provision is discounted. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company. A present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Contingent liabilities are appropriately disclosed unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote.

A contingent asset is a possible asset arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company. Contingent assets are not recognised till the realisation of the income is virtually certain. However, the same are disclosed in the financial statements where an inflow of economic benefit is possible.

A contingent asset is neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements considering strict adherence to prudence.

r) Exceptional Items

Exceptional items are disclosed separately in the financial statements where it is necessary to do so to provide further understanding of the financial performance of the company. These are material items of income or expense that have to be shown separately due to their nature or incidence.

s) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividends and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

t) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and in hand and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

u) Cash flow statement :

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit / (loss) before extraordinary items and tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information.

v) Segment reporting :

In accordance with IND AS - 108 – "Segment Reporting", Segments are identified based on the manner in which the Company's Chief Operating Decision Maker ('CODM') decides about resource allocation and reviews performance. Segment results that are reported to the CODM include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis. Segment capital expenditure is the total cost incurred during the period to acquire property, plant and equipment and intangible assets other than goodwill.

The company has identified two reportable business segments viz. "Educational Training and Development Activities" and "Educational Business Support Activities". A Detailed disclosure has been made in these financial statements. There are no other primary reportable segments. The major and material activities of the company are restricted to only one geographical segment i.e., India, hence the secondary segment disclosures are also not applicable.

w) Equity share capital :

Issuance of ordinary shares are recognized as equity share capital in equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of new equity shares are recognized as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

x) Dividends:

The final dividend on shares is recorded as a liability on the date of approval by the shareholders and interim dividends are recorded as a liability on the date of declaration by the Company's Board of Directors. The Company declares and pays dividends in Indian rupees. The Finance Act, 2020 has repealed the Dividend Distribution Tax (DDT). Companies are now required to pay/distribute dividend after deducting applicable tax at source. The remittance of dividends outside India is governed by Indian law on foreign exchange and is also subject to withholding tax at source applicable rates.

y) Offsetting instruments

Assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amount and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the company or the counter-party.

z) Key accounting estimates and judgements :

In preparing these financial statements, management has made judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses.

Actual results may differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis.

There are no assumptions and estimation uncertainties that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment within the next financial year.

The significant actuarial assumptions for the determination of the defined benefit obligations are discount rate and expected salary increase. The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on reasonably possible changes of the respective assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period, while holding all other assumptions constant.

If the discount rate increases / decreases by 1%, the defined benefit obligations would increase / (decrease) as follows:

Amount in ₹ Lacs

Particulars	2025-26	2024-25
Increase of 1%	(1.22)	(0.63)
Decrease of 1%	1.29	0.66

If the expected salary growth increases / decreases by 1%, the defined benefit obligations would increase / (decrease) as follows:

Amount in ₹ Lacs

Particulars	2025-26	2024-25
Increase of 1%	1.31	0.67
Decrease of 1%	(1.26)	(0.64)

The sensitivity analysis presented above may not be representative of the actual change in the defined benefit obligations as it is unlikely that the change in assumptions would occur in isolation of one another as some of the assumptions may be correlated.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligations has been calculated using the Projected Unit Credit Method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same as that applied in calculating the defined benefit obligations recognised in the balance sheet.

Each year an Asset-Liability matching study is performed in which the consequences of the strategic investment policies are analysed in terms of risk and return profiles. Investment and contribution policies are integrated within this study.

Measurement of fair values

The basis of measurement in respect to each class of financial asset and financial liability is disclosed in note 2(m) of the financial statement.

Financial Risk Management

The Company has exposure to the following risks arising from financial instruments:

- Credit Risk
- Liquidity Risk
- Market Risk.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that the counterparty will not meet its obligations leading to a financial loss. Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, investments carried at amortised cost and deposits with banks and financial institutions, as well as credit exposures to customers including outstanding receivables and unbilled revenue.

i. Credit risk management

Credit risk has always been managed by the company through credit approvals, establishing credit limits and continuously monitoring the credit worthiness of customers to which the company grants credit terms in the normal course of business.

The company considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forwarding-looking information.

In general, it is presumed that credit risk has significantly increased since initial recognition if the payments are more than 90 days past due.

A default on a financial asset is when the counter party fails to make contractual payments of when they fall due. This definition of default is determined by considering the business environment in which entity operates and other macro-economic factors.

ii. Provision for expected credit losses

The company follows 'simplified approach', for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables or contract revenue receivables and unbilled revenue.

As a practical expedient, the Company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables and unbilled revenue. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables and is adjusted for forward-looking estimates. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

Financial instruments and cash deposits

The credit risk from balances / deposits with banks, other financial assets and current investments are managed in accordance with the company's approved policy. Investments of surplus funds are made only with approved counter-parties and within the limits assigned to each counter-parties. The limits are assigned to mitigate the concentration risks. These limits are actively monitored by the Company.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may encounter difficulty in meeting its obligations. The Company monitors rolling forecast of its liquidity position on the basis of expected cash flows. The Company's approach is to ensure that it has sufficient liquidity or borrowing headroom to meet its obligations at all point in time. The Company has sufficient short-term fund-based lines, which provides healthy liquidity and these carry highest credit quality rating from reputed credit rating agency.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of the future cash flows will fluctuate because of changes in the market prices such as currency risk, interest rates risk and commodity price risk.

a. Currency risk

The Company operations are not exposed to foreign exchange risk

b. Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The interest rate risk can also impact the provision for retrial benefits. The Company does not have any outstanding borrowing and therefore not subject to interest rate risk, The Company is not exposed to significant interest rate risk as at the respective reporting dates.

c. Price Risk

The price risk is the risk arising from investments held by the Company and classified in the balance sheet either at fair value through Other Comprehensive Income or at fair value through profit or loss.

The Company's equity investments are mainly strategic in nature and are generally held on a long-term basis. Further, the current investments are in units of liquid mutual fund and these are not exposed to significant price risk.

d. Commodity Risk

The Company is not exposed to the fluctuations in commodity prices. The Company manages these price fluctuations, if any by actively managing the sourcing, private purchases and alternate strategies.

46. Capital Management

For the purpose of the company's capital management, capital includes issued equity capital, share premium and all other equity reserves attributable to the equity holders of the Company. The primary objective of the Company's capital management is to maximise the shareholder value.

The company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments in light of changes in economic conditions and the requirements of the financial covenants. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the company may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. The company monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. The company includes within debt, interest bearing loans and borrowings, trade and other payables, less other bank balances.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit of consolidated financial statement in accordance with standard on Auditing ("SAs") specified under section 143 (10) of the Act. Our responsibility under those standards is further described in the auditors' responsibilities for the audit of consolidated financial statement section of our report. we are independent of the Group in accordance with the code of Ethics issued by institute of chartered Accountants ("ICAI") together with the ethical requirement that are relevant to our audit of the Consolidated financial statement under provision of the act and the rules are made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's code of ethics. We believe that audit evidence obtained by us sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Consolidated financial statement.

Key Audit Matters

The Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement were of most significant in our audit of Consolidated financial statement of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Consolidated financial statement as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide separate opinion on these matters.

Information other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management discussion and analyses, Board's Report including annexure to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's information, but does not include the Consolidated Financial Statement, Standalone financial statement and our Auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the Consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation and presentation of these Consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the Consolidated financial position, Consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, Consolidated cash flows and Consolidated changes in equity of the Group in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. The respective Board of Directors of the Company included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the Companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of the respective Entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matter relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Director either intends to liquidate their respective Entities or to cease the operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the Companies included in the Group are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our Objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement whether due to error or fraud, and to issue an Auditor's Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company and its subsidiary companies which are companies incorporated in India, has adequate internal financial controls system with reference to Consolidated financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate Audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities within the Group to express and opinion on Consolidated financial statements.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatement in the Consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Consolidated financial statement may be influenced. We considered quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in

- (i) Planning the scope of our Audit work and evaluating results of our work.
- (ii) To evaluate the effects of any identified misstatements in the Consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Company and such other entities included in the Consolidated financial statements of which we are the Independent Auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matter communicated with those charged with governance, we determined those matters that were of most significance in the audit of Consolidated financial statement of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our Auditor's report unless law or regulations preclude public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefit of such communication.

ANNEXURE 'A' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

(Referred to in Paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on other Legal and Regulatory requirements' section of our Report to the Member of Global Education Ltd of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statement under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

In conjunction with our audit of the Consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2026, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statement of Global Education Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") and its subsidiary company, which are companies incorporated in India as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Boards of Directors of the Company and its subsidiary companies, which are Companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective Companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants (ICAI) of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to the Consolidated Financial Statements of the companies and its subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India, based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance note on Audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by ICAI and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements of the company and subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial Statement includes those policies and procedures that

- (1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanation given to us, the Company and its subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to Consolidated Financial Statement and such internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2026 based on criteria for the internal Financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

d) Business combinations

The Group accounts for its business combinations under acquisition method of accounting. Acquisition related costs are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit and loss as incurred. The acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities that meet the condition for recognition are recognised at their fair values at the acquisition.

Purchase consideration paid in excess of the fair value of net assets acquired is recognised as goodwill. Where the fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities exceed the cost of acquisition, after reassessing the fair values of the net assets and contingent liabilities, the excess is recognised as capital reserve. The interest of non-controlling shareholders is initially measured either at fair value or at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. The choice of measurement basis is made on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis. Subsequent to acquisition, the carrying amount of non-controlling interests is the amount of those interests at initial recognition plus the non-controlling interests' share of subsequent changes in equity of subsidiaries.

Business combinations arising from transfers of interests in entities that are under common control are accounted for at historical cost. The difference between any consideration given and the aggregate historical carrying amounts of assets and liabilities of the acquired entity is recorded in shareholders' equity.

e) Current and non-current classification

Assets and liabilities are classified into current and non-current as follows:

Assets-

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- It is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the company's normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- It is expected to be realised within 12 months after the reporting period; or
- It is cash or cash equivalent unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

Current assets include the current portion of non-current financial assets. All other assets (including deferred tax assets) are classified as non-current.

Liabilities -

A liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- It is expected to be settled in the company's normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- It is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting period; or
- The company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Current liabilities include the current portion of non-current financial liabilities. All other liabilities (including deferred tax liabilities) are classified as non-current.

Operating cycle -

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents. Based on the nature of operations and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the company has ascertained its operating cycle being a period of 12 months for the purpose of classification of assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

f) Foreign currency translations

• Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ('the functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (Rs.), which is the company's functional and presentation currency.

• Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at period end exchange rates are generally recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

g) Use of estimates

The preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements is in conformity with Indian Accounting Standard ('Ind AS'), which requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities as on the date of financial statement and the result of operations during the reporting period. Although these estimates are made on a reasonable and prudent basis based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.

h) Investments

Classification

The company classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- Those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income, or profit and loss) or
- Those measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the company's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows. For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held. For investments in equity instruments, this will depend on whether the company has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through profit and loss. The company reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes classification.

*The unquoted equity instruments on the basis of prudence and reasonable estimate by the management are carried over at Purchase cost which involves the irrevocable election by the management to carry the same at cost and based on the market data and significant changes in the values are incorporate by revaluing the same at fair value through profit and loss.

For the detail policy regarding the same the company would draw your attention to note no. n on Financial Instruments.

i) Property, plant and equipment

i. Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at actual cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Cost comprises the purchase price and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price.

The company has elected to continue with the carrying value for all of its property, plant and equipment as recognised in the financial statements on transition to Ind AS, measured as per the previous GAAP and use that as its deemed cost as at the date of transition.

ii. Capital work in progress

Asset that is still not completed and is in process of development is shown as capital work in progress. Capital work in progress is recognised on the basis of stage of its completion which adheres to the criteria of recognition that a future benefit can be obtained at the current stage of completion. Cost incurred till date is capitalized and once the asset is ready to use it is shifted to the block of fixed assets with unique identity and depreciation is charged accordingly thereafter.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to acquisition of property, plant & equipment which take a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are also included to the extent they relate to the period till such assets are ready to be put to use.

iii. Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation is provided on the written down value basis at the rates determined based on useful lives of assets, where applicable, prescribed under Schedule II to The Companies Act, 2013. Depreciation on assets acquired / sold during the year is provided on a pro-rata basis with reference to the date of installation / put to use/ disposal.

The carrying cost of assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date to determine if there is any indication of impairment thereof based on external/internal factors. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds their recoverable amounts in accordance with IND AS-36 – "Impairment of Assets" which represent the greater of the net selling price of assets & their 'value in use'.

Asset Description	Useful life as per schedule II of the companies Act, 2013	Useful life
Building	60 Years	60 Years
Plant and Machinery	8 - 40 years	8 - 20 years
Office equipments	5- 10 years	5 years
Computers	3 years	3 years
Servers and network	6 years	6 years
Vehicles	8-10 years	8 years
Furniture and fixture	10 years	10 years
Electrical Installation	10 years	10 years

Leasehold improvements are amortized over the period of lease.

Derecognition

An item of PPE is de-recognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

j) Intangible assets:

An intangible asset is recognized, where it is probable that future economic benefits attributable to the asset will flow to the enterprise and where the cost can be reliably ascertained. A prudent basis for recognition of intangible assets is always a key consideration. Intangible assets are stated at cost of acquisition less accumulated amortization and impairment loss, if any. Their technical feasibility and ability to generate future economic benefits is established in accordance with the requirements of IND AS-38, "Intangible Assets."

Derecognition

Intangible assets are derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount.

The Company has elected to continue with carrying value of all its intangible assets recognised as on transition date, measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as its deemed cost as of transition date.

k) Impairment of Non-financial assets:

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount

l) Inventories:

Traded goods are stated at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost of traded goods comprises cost of purchases and all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on the basis of weighted average method. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

m) Revenue recognition:i. Sale of goods:

Revenue is recognised when significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer. Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that economic benefits will flow to the Company and revenue can be reliably ascertained. Discounts and concessions are accounted for separately in a similar manner. Revenue from Product sale is recognized upon delivery or when delivered to the carrier and stated net of returns, discounts/price incentives which are estimated and accounted for based on the terms of contract & excludes applicable indirect taxes. Amounts received in advance of sale are recorded as Advances from Students/Unearned Revenue.

ii. Service income includes income from:Supply of infrastructure & other services:

Revenue from Supply of Infrastructure & Other services to corporate and other organizations is recognized on an accrual basis.

Training programs:

Revenue from providing Training to Educational as well as Non-Educational Institutions is recognized on an accrual basis. In case of online training the revenue is recognized on the basis of prudence and estimates made by the concerned department to the maximum possible level of accuracy, however sometimes the actual conformity is obtained after the counterparty confirmation.

Revenue from Advertising & Marketing Services provided to various organizations is recognized on an accrual basis.

Management services:

Revenue from Management Services provided to various organizations is recognized on an accrual basis.

iii. Other income:

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis at applicable interest rates.

Dividend income is accounted for when the right to receive dividend is established.

Rental income is recognized on the time proportion basis over the term of relevant agreement.

n) Employee benefitsI. Short term employee benefits:

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognized as an expense during the period when the employees render services. Bonus expenditure is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss on an accrual basis.

II. Post-employment benefits:i. Defined Contribution Plans:

A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which the company makes specified monthly contributions towards the Provident Fund. The company's contribution is recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss during the period in which the employees render the related service.

ii. Defined Benefit Plans:

Gratuity liability under the Payment of Gratuity Act is a defined benefit obligation and is provided for on the basis of an actuarial valuation on projected unit credit method made at the end of each financial year.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation denominated in Rs.22.26 Lacs is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefit expenses in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Remeasurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. They are included in retained earnings in the Statement of Changes in Equity and in the balance sheet.

Changes in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from plan amendments or curtailments are recognised immediately in profit or loss as past service cost.

o) Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalized during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

p) Financial Instruments

Financial assets

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following categories:

i. Financial assets at amortised cost-

Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. These are presented as current assets, except for those maturing later than 12 months after the reporting date which are presented as non-current assets. Financial assets are measured initially at fair value plus transaction costs and subsequently, if maturing after a 12 months period, using the effective interest method, less any impairment loss. Debt instruments which do not meet the criteria of amortised cost are measured at fair value and classified as fair value through profit and loss or through other comprehensive income, as applicable. Financial assets at amortised cost are represented by trade receivables, security deposits, cash and cash equivalents, Loans and other advances.

ii. Financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI)-

All equity investments are measured at fair values. Investments which are not held for trading purposes and where the Company has exercised the option to classify the investment as Fair Value through other comprehensive income ('FVTOCI'), all fair value changes on the investment are recognised in OCI. The accumulated gains or losses recognised in OCI are reclassified to retained earnings on sale of such investments.

iii. Financial assets at Fair Value through Profit and Loss (FVTPL) -

All equity investments are measured at fair values. Investments which are held for trading purposes and where the Company has exercised the option to classify the investment as Fair Value through Profit and Loss ('FVTPL'), all fair value changes on the investment are recognised in profit and loss. The accumulated gains or losses recognised in Profit and Loss.

Financial assets which are not classified in any of the categories above are fair valued through profit or loss (FVTPL).

iv. Impairment of financial assets -

The Company assesses expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortised cost and fair value based on Company's past history of recovery, credit-worthiness of the counterparty and existing market conditions. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. For trade receivables, the Company applies the simplified approach for recognition of impairment allowance as provided in Ind AS 109, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and in case of loans and borrowings net of directly attributable costs. Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using an effective interest method. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying value approximates fair value due to short maturity of these instruments.

Offsetting of Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Fair value measurement

The Company classifies the fair value of its financial instruments in the following hierarchy, based on the inputs used in their valuation:

- i) Level 1 - The fair value of financial instruments quoted in active markets is based on their quoted closing price at the balance sheet date.
- ii) Level 2 - The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined by using valuation techniques using observable market data. Such valuation techniques include discounted cash flows, standard valuation models based on market parameters for interest rates, yield curves or foreign exchange rates, dealer quotes for similar instruments and use of comparable arm's length transactions.

- iii) Level 3 - The fair value of financial instruments that are measured on the basis of entity specific valuations using inputs that are not based on observable market data.

q) Leases

Upon adoption of Ind AS - 116, the Company applied a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases that it is the lessee, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Company recognized lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

As a lessee Ind AS - 116 will replace the existing leases Standard, Ind AS - 17 Leases, and related interpretations. The Standard sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases for both parties to a contract i.e., the lessee and the lessor. Ind AS - 116 introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than 12 months, unless the underlying asset is of low value. Currently, operating lease expenses are charged to the statement of profit & loss.

The company considers that all its operating leases are of low value compared to its revenue and thereby accord to recognize all the lease expenses to the statement of profit and loss and the company has entered into lease contracts which are not long term in nature.

At inception of a contract, the Company assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether:

- the contract conveys the right to use an identified asset;
- the Company has the right to obtain substantially all the economic benefits from use of the asset throughout the period of use; and
- the Company has the right to direct the use of the identified asset.

At the date of commencement of a lease, the Company recognises a right-of-use asset ("ROU assets") and a corresponding lease liability for all leases, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For short-term and low value leases, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Company has considered all leases where the value of an underlying asset does not individually exceed Rs. 0.50 Crores, or equivalent as a lease of low value assets.

Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. Lease payments to be made under such reasonably certain extension options are included in the measurement of ROU assets and lease liabilities.

Lease liability is measured by discounting the lease payments using the interest rate implication of the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of the leases. Lease liabilities are re-measured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right of use asset if the Company changes its assessment of whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option. Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss over the lease periods to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

The ROU assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives and restoration costs. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. ROU assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the asset's useful life (refer 2. (f)) other lease whichever is shorter.

Impairment of ROU assets is in accordance with the Company's accounting policy for impairment of tangible and intangible assets.

The Company has entered into lease arrangements primarily for office premises and other facilities. All such lease agreements are either short-term in nature (i.e., lease term of 12 months or less) or include clauses that allow the Company to terminate the leases at its discretion without incurring significant penalties. Accordingly, these contracts do not result in the recognition of a right-of-use (ROU) asset or lease liability as per the recognition criteria under Ind AS 116 Leases.

Consequently, lease payments made under these arrangements are accounted for as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term and disclosed under "Other Expenses" in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Since no enforceable non-cancellable period exists, all such leases are classified as current in nature.

As a lessor

Lease income from operating leases where the Company is a lessor is recognised in the statement of profit and loss on a straight – line basis over the lease term.

r) Taxes on income

i. Current tax

The actual tax expense or tax payments made to the tax authorities can differ significantly on the basis of the interpretations being made. The management tries to interpret the law under the normal business parlance and the business acumen of the common man.

ii. Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the balance sheet approach on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised.

Deferred tax is recognized in Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that to relate to items recognized in Other Comprehensive Income or directly in equity. In this case, deferred tax is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, as the case may be.

iii. Minimum Alternate Tax

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in a year is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss as current tax. The company recognizes MAT credit available as an asset only to the extent there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal income tax during the specified period, i.e., the period for which MAT Credit is allowed to be carried forward. In the year in which the Company recognizes MAT Credit as an asset in accordance with the Guidance Note on Accounting for Credit Available in respect of Minimum Alternate Tax under the Income Tax Act, 1961, the said asset is created by way of credit to the statement of Profit and Loss and shown as "MAT Credit Entitlement." The Company reviews the "MAT Credit Entitlement" asset at each reporting date and writes down the asset to the extent the company does not have convincing evidence that it will pay normal tax during the sufficient period.

s) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation.

These estimates are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provision are discounted. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non- occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company. A present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Contingent liabilities are appropriately disclosed unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote.

A contingent asset is a possible asset arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company. Contingent assets are not recognised till the realisation of the income is virtually certain. However, the same are disclosed in the financial statements where an inflow of economic benefit is possible.

A contingent asset is neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements considering strict adherence to prudence.

t) Exceptional Items

Exceptional items are disclosed separately in the financial statements where it is necessary to do so to provide further understanding of the financial performance of the company. These are material items of income or expense that have to be shown separately due to their nature or incidence.

u) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividends and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

v) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and in hand and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

w) Cash flow statement:

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit / (loss) before extraordinary items and tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information.

x) Segment reporting:

In accordance with IND AS -108 – "Segment Reporting", Segments are identified based on the manner in which the Company's Chief Operating Decision Maker ('CODM') decides about resource allocation and reviews performance. Segment results that are reported to the CODM include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis. Segment capital expenditure is the total cost incurred during the period to acquire property, plant and equipment and intangible assets other than goodwill.

The company has identified two reportable business segments viz. "Educational Training and Development Activities" and "Educational Business Support Activities". A Detailed disclosure has been made in these financial statements. There are no other primary reportable segments. The major and material activities of the company are restricted to only one geographical segment i.e., India, hence the secondary segment disclosures are also not applicable.

y) Equity share capital:

Issuance of ordinary shares are recognized as equity share capital in equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of new equity shares are recognized as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

z) Dividends:

The final dividend on shares is recorded as a liability on the date of approval by the shareholders and interim dividends are recorded as a liability on the date of declaration by the Company's Board of Directors. The Company declares and pays dividends in Indian rupees. The Finance Act, 2020 has repealed the Dividend Distribution Tax (DDT). Companies are now required to pay/distribute dividends after deducting applicable tax at source. The remittance of dividends outside India is governed by Indian law on foreign exchange and is also subject to withholding tax at source applicable rates.

aa) Offsetting instruments

Assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amount and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the company or the counterparty.

bb) Key accounting estimates and judgments:

In preparing these financial statements, management has made judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses.

Actual results may differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis.

There are no assumptions and estimation uncertainties that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment within the next financial year.

The significant actuarial assumptions for the determination of the defined benefit obligations are discount rate and expected salary increase. The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on reasonably possible changes of the respective assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period, while holding all other assumptions constant.

If the discount rate increases / decreases by 1%, the defined benefit obligations would increase / (decrease) as follows :

(Rs in Lacs)

Particulars	2025-26	2024-25
Increase of 1%	(1.22)	(0.63)
Decrease of 1%	1.29	0.66

If the expected salary growth increases / decreases by 1%, the defined benefit obligations would increase / (decrease) as follows:

(Rs in Lacs)

Particulars	2025-26	2024-25
Increase of 1%	1.31	0.67
Decrease of 1%	(1.26)	(0.64)

The sensitivity analysis presented above may not be representative of the actual change in the defined benefit obligations as it is unlikely that the change in assumptions would occur in isolation of one another as some of the assumptions may be correlated.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligations has been calculated using the Projected Unit Credit Method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same as that applied in calculating the defined benefit obligations recognised in the balance sheet.

Each year an Asset-Liability matching study is performed in which the consequences of the strategic investment policies are analysed in terms of risk and return profiles. Investment and contribution policies are integrated within this study.

Measurement of fair values

The basis of measurement in respect to each class of financial asset and financial liability is disclosed in note 2(m) of the financial statement.

Financial Risk Management

The Company has exposure to the following risks arising from financial instruments :

- Credit Risk
- Liquidity risk
- Market risk.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that the counterparty will not meet its obligations leading to a financial loss. Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, investments carried at amortised cost and deposits with banks and financial institutions, as well as credit exposures to customers including outstanding receivables and unbilled revenue.

i. Credit risk management

Credit risk has always been managed by the company through credit approvals, establishing credit limits and continuously monitoring the credit worthiness of customers to which the company grants credit terms in the normal course of business.

The company considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forwarding-looking information.

In general, it is presumed that credit risk has significantly increased since initial recognition if the payments are more than 90 days past due.

A default on a financial asset is when the counterparty fails to make contractual payments of when they fall due. This definition of default is determined by considering the business environment in which entity operates and other macro-economic factors.

ii. Provision for expected credit losses

The company follows a 'simplified approach', for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables or contract revenue receivables and unbilled revenue.

As a practical expedient, the Company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables and unbilled revenue. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables and is adjusted for forward-looking estimates. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

Financial instruments and cash deposits

The credit risk from balances / deposits with banks, other financial assets and current investments are managed in accordance with the company's approved policy. Investments of surplus funds are made only with approved counterparties and within the limits assigned to each counter-parties. The limits are assigned to mitigate the concentration risks. These limits are actively monitored by the Company.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may encounter difficulty in meeting its obligations. The Company monitors the rolling forecast of its liquidity position on the basis of expected cash flows. The Company's approach is to ensure that it has sufficient liquidity or borrowing headroom to meet its obligations at all point in time. The Company has sufficient short-term fund-based lines, which provides healthy liquidity and these carry highest credit quality rating from reputed credit rating agency.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of the future cash flows will fluctuate because of changes in the market prices such as currency risk, interest rates risk and commodity price risk.

a. Currency risk

The Company operations are not exposed to foreign exchange risk

b. Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The interest rate risk can also impact the provision for retrial benefits. The Company does not have any outstanding borrowing and therefore not subject to interest rate risk, The Company is not exposed to significant interest rate risk as at the respective reporting dates.

c. Price Risk

The price risk is the risk arising from investments held by the Company and classified in the balance sheet either at fair value through Other Comprehensive Income or at fair value through profit or loss.

The Company's equity investments are mainly strategic in nature and are generally held on a long-term basis. Further, the current investments are in units of liquid mutual fund and these are not exposed to significant price risk.

d. Commodity Risk

The Company is not exposed to the fluctuations in commodity prices. The Company manages these price fluctuations, if any by actively managing the sourcing, private purchases and alternate strategies.

47. Capital Management

For the purpose of the company's capital management, capital includes issued equity capital, share premium and all other equity reserves attributable to the equity holders of the Company. The primary objective of the Company's capital management is to maximise the shareholder value.

The company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments in light of changes in economic conditions and the requirements of the financial covenants. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the company may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. The company monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. The company includes within debt, interest bearing loans and borrowings, trade and other payables, less other bank balances.
